

Chuck Stohler, Esq.

Chuck Stohler is the lead partner of Carmody & Torrance's Labor and Employment Group and head of the firm's Business Services Practice Group. Chuck's practice includes traditional labor relations as well as preventive human resources advice and representation in all aspects of the employment relationship. He represents major insurance companies, corporations, hospitals, nonprofit organizations and municipalities in all matters of labor and employment law. His practice covers traditional labor relations, executive employment contracts, wage and hour questions, separation agreements, mergers and acquisitions, personnel policies, employment discrimination defense, sexual harassment issues, insurance and benefits issues, compensation and incentive programs, and drug policies. A major part of Chuck's practice is providing training seminars, ranging from customized management training for clients to programs for large industry-wide associations. Chuck also regularly serves as an arbitrator or mediator in employment disputes. Mr. Stohler is a graduate of Duke University Law School.